Today's the day! The long awaited day to celebrate (cats)! You put on your favorite (yellow) (dress) and rush out of your room to the kitchen. You decided that you will be making (cake) for this (joyous) occasion. You add all the basic ingredients, but decide to spice things up by adding lots of (glitter). You think it will make it taste very (yummy). With the food all done, you start to decorate your (apartment) with (star)-shaped banners and (balloons). You set out some (orange)-scented candles and put on (soothing) (jazz) music.

Ding-dong! Those must be your friends!

A group of (cats) rush into your home, holding lots of (gifts), ready to celebrate! Let the party begin!
